Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of Chapel Hill High School, being sound in body and mind (?), do hereby bequeath, devise, and bestow the following articles to—

I. —The faculty. To all teachers who from the first grade on have constantly maintained that we were the worst class imaginable, at last, we grant you peace!

II. —Mr. Buckner and Emily. We hope that the incoming classes will not be quite so irregular in attendance, but just in case, we're leaving a large supply of those dear little tardy slips.

III. Carl Durham receives a few tips on the fine art of "soda jerkery" from Bob Graham.

IV. Jean Hogan leaves as much of her mischievousness as she can part with to Mary Jane Nelson.

V. Jack Lloyd leaves a portion of his super physique to Donald "Muscles" Sparrow.

VI. Clyde Macie Pickett's money "collectability" is graciously presented to a member of next year's HILLIFE staff.

VII. Our two genii, Exum Horton and Earl Waters, after much coaxing, leave their intelligence and syncretic ways to their buddy, Bill Rosenstengel.

VIII. A complete set of absolutely balanced treasury books will be given by Jimmie Dobbins to his successor. Accompanying them are the necessary priorities needed to obtain a sufficient supply of "red tape."

IX. Thomas Bland's natural dignity is bequeathed to Donnie Campbell, with expectant hopes.

X. Ann Leonard leaves her sweetness and beauty to Eloise Poe.

XI. Joe Gutierrez helpfully grants his dancing ability to Johnny Canada in an effort to take off a few pounds.

XII. Sam McCauley, having so much to donate (great athletic abilities, dramatics, etc.), gives it willingly to the future "Mr. CHHS."

XIII. Louise Whitfield shares with Marilyn Meeks her laughing disposition and inability to stay angry.

XIV. Lewis Pendergraft bestows a wee bit of his quietness upon Corny Carmichael.

XV. Nicky Heer is on the receiving end of a gift composed of the unceasing comedies which are bound to occur around either "Zombie" or Richard Lawrence.

Senior Prophecy

Chapel Hill, N. C.
May 24, 1953

DEAR MRS. PERRY:

A lot has happened since my freshman year in Chapel Hill High School, but I haven't forgotten English classes under you. I was reminiscing the other day, and remembered that you asked us to let you know what we were doing ten years after we graduated from the old school. It really is a small world for I have seen quite a few of those who were with me in the class of '43. I thought perhaps, if you are still interested, I could tell you about them.

There are some who have become famous and who you have, no doubt, recognized in the newspapers and magazines. For instance, that popular dance team Louise Jones and Douglas Wyatt, who are featured at the "Roxy" this season. Also the criminal lawyer John T. Brittain and his secretary Daphene Lacock, who can spell every word in the dictionary. You might have seen pictures of Patsy Andrews and Mary Joe Beck. They are both successful Powers models. I'm sure you have followed closely the career of Sam McCauley, matinee idol, since it was your interest that gave him a start as a Playmaker. Since television has come in, I know you have recognized the Lone Song Quartette to be an original C.H.H.S. group. Who would have thought that Alton Riley, Dan Pickett, Charles Holloway, and Exum Horton would become famous in the music world?

Alfred Kirkland and Jimmie Dobbins are still recuperating from nervous breakdowns suffered way back in '43 when they edited the Hillife. Nurses Norma Hearn, Mildred Brown, and Margie Duncan describe them as patient patients.

Some of my class-mates are now on the teaching staff at the University. Among these are, Earle Waters and Billy Cheek, in the History Department; William Best, an excellent mathematician, and Thomas Bland teaching French.

Lewis Pendergraft is running a dude farm, for women only. Some of them are, Ann Leonard, Phyllis Bradshaw, and Valeska Haydon. Other prominent Orange County farmers are Lewis Cheek, Clyde Carroll, and Billy Williams.

Freddie Fussell is sound-effects man for station WTNT. The latest addition to his repertoire is the sound of a rabbit.

I know you'll be delighted to know that Richard Lawrence is now Editor of the "Chapel Hill Weekly." He has worked himself up to this position since 1942 when he started as a cub reporter.

Dr. J. P. Ellington is a chiroprapist, now practicing in Durham. He always was at the foot of all trouble.

If you will promise not to tip off the F.B.I., I'll tell you what Bernard Dark, Bobby Graham, Jack Lloyd, and George Pickard are doing. Well, there are handling the biggest lottery sweep ever to hit Carrboro. As moll for the gang, Claudia Cannady does the drawing. It has all turned out to be a crooked, but profitable, business venture.

Sam Hooker and "Pig" Perry are representing our class in the professional sports world. Sam is on the Chicago football squad while "Pig" is with the "Yankees."

Most of us, Mrs. Perry, are settled in our respective notches, happily inconspicuous. You and all our other teachers have guided us in more than the basic school work. Your interest and assistance will always be deeply appreciated by each one of us.

Sincerely,

JEAN HOGAN

Activities

Student Council

STUDENT COUNCIL

This has been quite an unusual year for the Student Council. It did not publish a hand-book, since there was no Freshman class. It did not have a school store, usually its chief source of income, for lack of space. Also the Council's secretary left at the mid-term and due to a reshuffle of homerooms, a mid-term election of new Homeroom Representatives was held.

The Council, in the face of these obstacles, "took the bit in its teeth" and in addition to carrying on its regular duties, set up the sale of War Stamps in the school, helped organize the Victory Corps, and sponsored a Scrap Drive and Key Contest.

And so, the Student Council, under conditions brought on by the war, plus the loss of the school building, has carried on admirably in a truly democratic manner.

Hillife

Absent—Sam McCauley.

HILLIFE

Staff chosen by class votes—Color and design of cover—Credit to Mr. Pugh—Advertisements by Sam, Bobby, “Pig,” and J. P.—Senior class pictures and upset classes—Voyages to Hill Hall for group pictures—The plot and Alfred’s notebook thicken—All afternoon typing sessions with Louise J., Jimmie and Jean at the keys—Senior write-ups thanks to Louise W. and Marian—Candid shots by Anne and “Pig”—Sports directed by C. R. and Jack—First minute decisions of Phyllis and Clyde Macie—Alfred and Jimmie add grey hairs fast—Meet that deadline—Made it!

Publications

Absent—Dot Dashiell (Editor-in-Chief of Proconian), Crikette Butler (Feature Editor of Proconian), Carlyle Cashion, Betsy Anne Barbee, Miss Jessie Rehder (Adviser).

THE PROCONIAN

Fortunately, the staff of the Proconian this year was unusually small. They were given a seven foot cubicle, windowless, in which to work.

Out of "the cell" though came the best sheet ever. The right margins were evened up, and under the direction of Miss Rehder, a new record was set. The Proconian was printed!

THE SCROLL—1942-1943

With the departure of the old standbys of the Scroll in former years, there was a great deal of confusion and uncertainty with the putting out of the first issue. However, after the initial attempt, the Scroll began to steadily improve its position. Traditions have been scrapped and emerging is what we think is a better magazine. The staff for this year is small but the contributions have been large.

Library Club

LIBRARY CLUB

The responsibility for the preparation of the books for the library "built from the ashes" fell to the library club, and this group has untiringly aided in the many meticulous processes of preparation for use of approximately two thousand books. Club programs, varying in scope from book reviews to humorous contests, have helped to make the year an interesting, if hard, one.

Girls' Choir

GIRLS' CHOIR

With a much diminished group, this year, Mrs. Maaske has carried on, and developed a choir for girls. Two concerts were well received at assembly, one concert for the P.T.A. and one at the Rotary Club. Solo work was done by Eloise Poe, Frances Privette, Mickey McDonald and Phyllis Bradshaw. In the spring Mrs. Maaske's plans included the presentation of H.M.S. Pinafore in which the choir led in the group choruses.

Girl Reserves and Boys Senior Hi-Y

Absent—Sam McCauley.

Future Farmers of America

Absent—Lewis Cheek (Vice-President).

THE WORK OF THE F.F.A. CHAPTER

The Chapter this year has turned almost all of its attention to helping in the war effort. It collected about nine tons of scrap in a drive last fall and has bought a hog for the Food for Freedom campaign. To help with this food program, many members are carrying on special crop and animal projects.

The club is helping to put purebred animals on the farms near Chapel Hill by offering purebred pigs to the winners of certain club activities.

The club has had a good year and is hoping for a still better one next year.

Victory Corps

HILLIFE — 1943

Sports

Football

WINFRED CARROLL

Few people can equal Winfred's keen fighting spirit, and this was evident by his fine relief work.

STEWART DILLEHAY

"Guts" was excellent on defense as well as a good down field blocker on offense.

J. P. ELLINGTON

"Jasper" has played 2 years of football for dear old C.H.H.S. Holding an end position, "Jasper" was a big help with his superior tackling and blocking.

FRANK FEARINGTON

Frank didn't see any action this year due to a broken leg received in practice, but we are expecting much next year.

JACK JOHNSON

"Knut" didn't make the first team but he was well known to the other team because of his fine pass snagging.

BILL KILPATRICK

Bill was noted for his ability to open big holes in the opponents' lines. He was also noted for his breaking through the line to smear the ball carrier for a loss.

JACK LLOYD

Jack's fine blocking and tackling led many gains for C.H.H.S. In some games he took out as many as three men at a time.

SAM McCAULEY

"Mac" was noted for his shoe-string tackles, and many did he make. He was hurt in the middle of the season and C.H.H.S. was badly crippled.

BEN PERRY

"Buddy-Buddy," with his plunging through the line, could pick up yardage when C.H.H.S. needed it. By being so big at his fullback position he won the name of Mr. Five-by-Five.

DAN PICKETT

"Puckett" delayed his debut in football until his senior year, when he distinguished himself with his running and blocking.

Football

BILL PRITCHARD

Although Bill was young and inexperienced at the first of the season, he came to be a big help to the team.

ROGER THRIFT

(Co-Capt.) "Mutt" was one of the most consistent in C.H.H.S. history. "Mutt" is best known for his fine pass snagging, but he can sling 'em as well as catch 'em.

CHARLES WRIGHT

This was Charles' first year out but he made the starting lineup after much hard work.

J. D. WRIGHT

Although J. D. was only a sub, he showed good spirit in sticking out for the team.

THAD WRIGHT

Although small, Thad put many people on the ground with his severe tackling.

ABSENT

LAWRENCE FORE

(Co-Capt.) Lawrence was one of the best tackles C.H.H.S. has ever had. Although Fore played in some losing games for C.H.H.S., he is now with a winning team, the U. S. Navy.

SAM HOOKER

"Slinging Sammy" was noted for his passing, but some of his booming punts got C.H.H.S. out of many holes.

HERMAN GREENE

Although Greene was late coming out for the team, he proved to be a big asset to the team because of his snagging and tackling.

CLYDE CARROLL

Clyde waited until his senior year to come out for the team and although he was small he was a big asset to the team with his tackling.

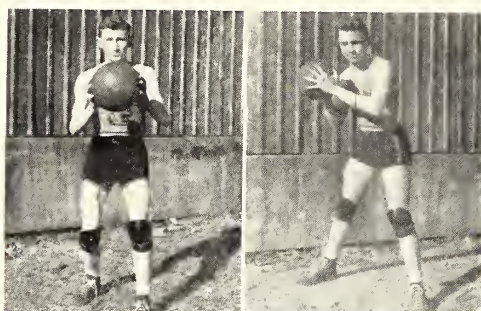

DONALD STANFORD

Don was noted for his fine play in the line or in the backfield. His fast running was excellent.

FRED FUSSELL

Freddie can be depended upon to play a cool steady game at his guard or tackle position.

Basketball Team

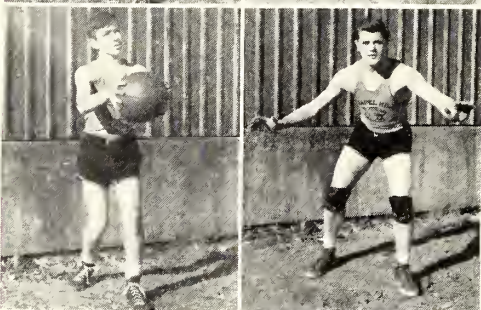

RAYMOND "PIG" PERRY

Co-captain. A crack ball handler, a star guard with supreme accuracy at one handed shots.

FREDDIE BOWMAN

A rising star, Freddie well merits his position at forward or center.

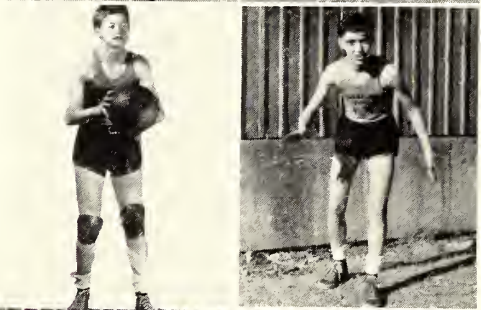

BILL KILLINGER

One of the smallest men on the team, but he has been playing brilliant ball this year. He was awarded the "Most Improved" trophy.

JOE GUTIERREZ

Co-captain. Joe was one of the best ball handlers we had this year. He was awarded the trophy for the best all-around player.

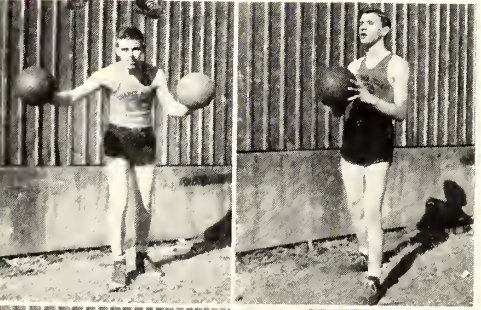

SAM McCAULEY

Due to an injury, Sam was late starting the season. He worked his way up to the first team, which shows he can really play ball.

COLLIER COBB

"Cobby" was a precise shooter as well as a versatile ball player.

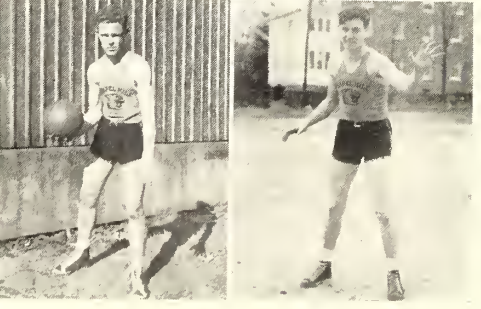

GEORGE PICKARD

George was the tallest man on the team after Herman Greene left, and he has been using this extra height to good advantage.

J. P. ELLINGTON

A star forward, a whiz at getting the ball off the backboard and always depended upon to play a cool game.

BILL PRITCHARD

Pritchard started late in the season but he has been working his way up.

ROGER THRIFT

"Mutt" was awarded the high scorer's trophy. Long shots and hook shots are "Mutt's" specialty.

Basketball Reserves

BASKETBALL RESERVES

Although the reserves didn't get to see much action, they provided extra strength whenever needed. Most of these boys will be on the first team because of graduation of the first team which is composed of nearly all seniors. They should develop into a good team because of their experience.

Baseball

BASEBALL

This season C.H.H.S. had one of the best teams in years. As pitcher we had Roger "Mutt" Thrift, a boy that had rather pitch than eat; at third base we had Alfred Kirkland, a good hitter and fielder; at short stop, the old reliable Joe Gutierrez; at second base, Raymond "Pig" Perry was back to try to keep up his errorless ball; Shelton Womble played left field; in the centerfield position was Jack Lloyd; Clyde Carroll took over where he left off in right field. George Pickard relieved "Mutt" as pitcher, and Bill Kilpatrick, Frank Fearington, and Winfred Carroll were on hand to relieve the outfielders. Evander Blackwood played the first base position again this year.

There were many newcomers out for the team this year. Some were: Bill Killinger, who tried out for second base; Collier Cobb, another second baseman; Billy Williams became catcher this year since Bill Layton left, and J. P. Ellington tried his skill at baseball after finishing a successful basketball season.

☪ Today the main purpose of the entire country is directed to the war effort and winning the war. Some serve in the Army, some in the Navy, some in the factory, some in transportation. We all have a place to fill.

☪ For some their lot is to serve on the home front—serving the youth of the country, the economic structure—looking to the time when the boys will come home again.

☪ We feel that it is our lot to try and see that they have something fine and stable to come back to. They also serve who only stand and wait.
